

Japan Academy of Nursing Science
(JANS)
and its Support
for Disaster Nursing Activities

Noriko Yamamoto-Mitani, PhD, RN

Vice Chairperson

Japan Academy of Nursing Science
in charge of Disaster Support Committee

Contents:

Introducing Japan Academy of Nursing Science (JANS)
and its disaster support activities: past and future

- Mission
- Members
- Organization
- Disaster Nursing Activity Support by JANS:
2011-2015
- Future developments

Japan Academy of Nursing Science (JANS)

- Established in 1981
- First nursing academy to receive approval for registration with the Japan Academy Conference in 1987
- Registered with the Science Council of Japan as an academic society
- Incorporated in 2007
- Current term of board of directors: 2017-2018

Missions of JANS

- Promoting the development of nursing science
- Facilitating the exchange of knowledge in a broad range of relevant fields
- Contributing to public health and welfare
- Focus on nursing knowledge development

Members of JANS

- 9,108 members (as of October 13, 2017)

Missions & Organization of JANS

Annual Conference of JANS

- JANS 36@ Tokyo    December 10-11, 2016
  - Promoting policy research in nursing that contributes to the nation's welfare
  - participants: 4,306
- JANS 37@ Sendai    December 16-17, 2017
  - Diversity design and care innovation in nursing

Two Journals

DISASTER NURSING ACTIVITY SUPPORT BY JANS: 2011-2015

Disaster Support by JANS 2011-2015

- The nature of JANS: nursing knowledge development as primary focus– direct disaster support may not be primary responsibility
- Nursing knowledge for disaster (nursing) activities may be major role
- Called for model disaster nursing activities by JANS members
- Joint donation activity with JANA
- Activities and reports

Disaster Nursing Activity Support (2011)

Budget (Japanese Yen)	Researcher	Project Title
760,000	Midori Kawashima (Japanese Red Cross College of Nursing)	Developing a new community by way of caring relationship at “ Nadeshiko Gathering Place ”
496,261	Setsu Shimanouchi (Hiroshima Bunka Gakuen University)	Home care workshop for nurses to promote disaster area support
372,289	Shiori Usami (Kumamoto University)	Joint project of disaster support
1,628,550

Disaster Nursing Activity Support (2012)

Budget (Japanese Yen)	Researcher	Project Title
995,000	Midori Kawashima (Japanese Red Cross College of Nursing)	Developing nursing practice knowledge from nurses' narratives on disaster nursing activities at the Great East Japan Earthquake
900,000	Aiko Yamamoto (University of Hyogo)	Health survey based on individual visits to temporary housing in Kesennuma: Joint project b/w Hyogo Prefectural U and Miyagi U
500,000	Kumiko Sasaki (Miyagi University)	Developing health support activities for the elderly in Minami-Sanriku by nursing students and faculties of Miyagi U
423,240	Akie Ayabe (Ibaraki Prefectural College of Health Sciences)	Implementation of health support for earthquake refugees to urban areas
2,818,240

Disaster Nursing Activity Support (2013)

Budget (Japanese Yen)	Researcher	Project Title
500,000	Midori Kawashima (Japanese Red Cross College of Nursing)	Program for healthy elderly
400,000	Emi Shibuya (Ibaraki Christian University)	Support activity for mother and child refugees in Ibaraki by the Great East Japan Earthquake and Fukushima nuclear accident
400,000	Toshiko Oyama (Japanese Red Cross Hokkaido College of Nursing)	Mid- and long- term support for community re- construction: “Come join us and tell us”
300,000	Kumiko Sasaki (Miyagi University)	Enhancing health support activity for elderly people in Minami-Sanriku town by nursing students and faculties of Miyagi U
1,600,000

Disaster Nursing Activity Support (2014-a)

Budget (Japanese Yen)	Researcher	Project Title
290,000	Miyako Tsukamoto (Yokohama Soei University)	Integrated meeting for promoting person-centered mutual assistance in community
610,000	Chiaki Kitamiya (Hirosaki University)	Health consultation and risk communication for local government staff with long term refugees in disaster area
570,000	Naoko Utsumi (University of Tsukuba)	Intervention study about the long-term effect of the health support program for elderly resident in a temporary housing area affected by the Great East Japan Earthquake
620,000	Kumiko Sasaki (Miyagi University)	Health support activity for elderly people in Minami-Sanriku town by nursing student and faculty of Miyagi U

Disaster Nursing Activity Support (2014-b)

Budget (Japanese Yen)	Researcher	Project Title
1,000,000	Midori Kawashima (Japanese Red Cross College of Nursing)	Developing human resources for increasing effectiveness of home care
360,000	Hagiko Aoki (Niigata University)	Health support projects for long-term users of temporary housing due to Fukushima nuclear accident
880,000	Kaori Oono (International University of Health and Welfare)	Promoting self-care behavior of temporary housing residents in Kaori area, Kesenuma city and nursing support for high-risk residents
400,000	Toshiko Oyama (Japanese Red Cross Hokkaido College of Nursing)	Long term support for community reconstruction part 2: “Come join us and tell us everything”
4,710,000

Disaster Nursing Activity Support (2015)

Budget (Japanese Yen)	Researcher	Project Title
350,000	Yuko Yamamoto (Musashino University)	Continual health maintenance support for elderly survivors
350,000	Hisao Nakai (Kanazawa Medical University)	Developing “Disaster preparedness check sheet” for preparing corporate supporter and home care clients who needs medical treatment
700,000

Future Directions

*Knowledge distribution via JANS journals

*Indirect Support by assisting JANA's coordinated activities

Thank you very much!

Mt. Fuji, Japan